ORDER

TRIBUNAL: ROFE J (Deputy President)

DATE: 6 MAY 2025

WHERE MADE: SYDNEY

THE TRIBUNAL ORDERS BY CONSENT THAT:

1. Pursuant to s 163(2)(b) of the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth), with effect until further order, any documents filed, tendered or otherwise introduced into evidence in the proceedings that are marked or listed as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" in accordance with the confidentiality regime ordered by the Tribunal on 10 October 2023 (Confidentiality Regime) not be published or made available and not be disclosed to any person or entity except to those to whom disclosure can be made under the Confidentiality Regime.
2. In the event that any member of the public applies to inspect any documents filed, tendered or otherwise introduced into evidence in these proceedings, the parties will first be notified of the request and the documents in question and given the opportunity to make submissions with respect to the documents which are the subject of a request for inspection.

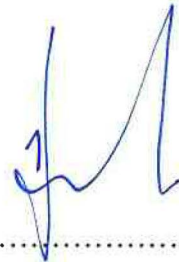

THE TRIBUNAL DIRECTS THAT:

3. The parties, at delivery of the Tribunal's final determination, provide to the Tribunal proposed orders in respect of either the discharge or the extension of orders 1 and 2 above.

THE TRIBUNAL NOTES THAT:

4. Nothing in these orders displaces the orders made by the Tribunal on 10 October 2023 or any inter partes arrangements made in writing as regards the handling of confidential material.
5. Liberty to apply on three days' notice.
